Hillside Horse Slaughterhouse Petition

Hillside Animal Sanctuary's investigation at the Red Lion Horse Abattoir revealed a multitude of illegal practices which caused unnecessary suffering to the animals.

We, the undersigned, call upon the Food Standards Agency to fully review the slaughterhouse footage filmed by Hillside Animal Sanctuary, with a view to prosecuting those responsible for breaches of the Welfare of Animals (Slaughter or Killing) Regulations of 1995.

| Name | First Line of Address only | Postcode | Signature |   |
|------|----------------------------|----------|-----------|---|
|      | '                   |          | 3         | _ |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      | 1                          |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           |   |
|      |                            |          |           | _ |
|      |                            | -        |           | _ |

Hall Lane, Frettenham Norwich NR12 7LT

Tel: 01603 736200

website: www.hillside.org.uk e-mail: contact@hillside.org.uk

